LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE ^[1])--Pacific Coast Oil Trust (the "Trust") (NYSE: ROYT), a perpetual royalty trust formed by Pacific Coast Energy Company LP ("PCEC"), announced today it will visit the New York Stock Exchange to ring The Opening Bell® on Tuesday, May 21, 2013, to celebrate the Trust's one year anniversary since completing its initial public offering on May 8, 2012.

CEO Randall Breitenbach and President Halbert Washburn, joined by members of PCEC's management team responsible for the Trust, will ring The Opening Bell to celebrate the occasion.

Randall Breitenbach, CEO, said: "This month marks the one year anniversary of Pacific Coast Oil Trust as a publicly traded trust. Over the past year, the Trust's assets have continued to deliver predictable results as demonstrated by the consistency of the monthly distributions paid to our unitholders since June 2012. The California-based, perpetual Trust holds interests in high quality oil assets that have long producing histories, well-established production profiles, and attractive development potential. These assets are owned and managed by PCEC, whose management team has over 25 years in the oil exploitation and production industry. When we ring the bell, we will be sharing the celebration of our past and future successes with all those who have supported us."

The Opening Bell will ring at 9:30 a.m. Eastern time and can be viewed live on the NYSE's website at <https://nyse.nyx.com/the-bell/todays-bells-live> ^[2]. Photos and video of the NYSE Bell Ringing Ceremony will be available, courtesy of the NYSE, on Facebook--NYSEEuronext, Twitter at <http://twitter.com/NYSEEuronext> ^[3] and on the NYSE YouTube Channel -- nysetv1.

About Pacific Coast Oil Trust
